		IV Therapy	SAC

Program Description

Individuals will gain understanding of intravenous insertion, maintenance, and removal. The IV therapy certification allows an opportunity for the student to demonstrate expertise and competency of intravenous therapy management and maintence. This is an opportunity to enhance skills needed to insert and maintain an IV with limited experience for the student to gain more experience and knowledge needed to function in the healthcare setting. This specialization is ideal for Registered Nurses, Licensed Vocational/Practical Nurses, and other skill professionals previousey trained in IV therapy or individuals seeking to refresh their IV skills.

CE students have access to the ACES portal at https://aces.alamo.edu. ACES is your official access point to student resources and information.
All Alamo Colleges CE students are given a banner ID number and official Alamo Colleges e-mail; your Official Alamo College e-mail address will be the official form of communication between you and the college.

CE courses require a minimum of 80% attendance; some State Regulated courses require a specific number of hours to qualify for a certification from a credentialing body. Students are expected to attend class on the first day and throughout the program. Students may be dropped who do not attend the first class meeting or make contact with the instructor regarding the absence.

For fully online courses, an attendance verification activity is assigned and must be completed. For courses that are less than 3-days the student is expected to complete the attendance activity on or before the Census Date.

CE students may have the option to convert CEU's to academic credits for qualifying programs which may lead towards an academic certificate or associate's degree at any of the Alamo Colleges. A six-hour academic requirement must be met before the CEU's can be transferred into college credit.

The Alamo Colleges District's grading system is available in the Academic Standards section of the academic catalog on the left hand navigation bar. A grade of NR (Not Recorded) is posted on your transcript when your instructor has not assigned a final grade. To change a grade of NR, you should follow up with the instructor or, reach out to dst-alamoICD@alamo.edu for further guidance.
