

Marz Cuauhocelotl is a member of the Autonomous Brown Berets de San Anto. In her work with the Autonomous Brown Berets, Marz has been fierce in her advocacy for houseless relatives and against family separation, children in cages, and deportation.

Indigenous sovereignty, racial justice, and climate justice are the heart of Marz's sympathies. She considers herself an ally to LGBTQ+ folks. She has also worked closely with families whose loved ones were killed by San Antonio law enforcement and believes the ultimate goal should be to abolish the police.

Marz focuses her energy toward mutual aid, advocacy for self-defense, and direct action as an alternative to American electoral politics. She is a REVOLUTIONARY.
