				Pharmacy Technician		PAC, NVC
Program Description
This program/course prepares students for the (CPhT) Certified Pharmacy Technician Certification. Pharmacy technicians learn to support pharmacists and provide safe and effective care to patients in community, hospital/health system, ambulatory care, military, compounding, online, veterinary, and other practice settings. Students learn to fulfill responsibilities that vary by the type of practice setting and the technician's level of experience. In general, a pharmacy technician may take and review medication histories, enter prescription orders, package and label prescriptions & operate automated dispensing systems, maintain inventories, process insurance claims, and compound sterile preparations.

CE students have access to the ACES portal at <https://aces.alamo.edu>. ACES is your official access point to student resources and information.

All Alamo Colleges CE students are given a banner ID number and official Alamo Colleges e-mail; your Official Alamo College e-mail address will be the official form of communication between you and the college.

CE courses require a minimum of 80% attendance; some State Regulated courses require a specific number of hours to qualify for a certification from a credentialing body. Students are expected to attend class on the first day and throughout the program. Students may be dropped who do not attend the first class meeting or make contact with the instructor regarding the absence.

For fully online courses, an attendance verification activity is assigned and must be completed. For courses that are less than 3-days the student is expected to complete the attendance activity on or before the Census Date.

CE students may have the option to convert CEU's to academic credits for qualifying programs which may lead towards an academic certificate or associate's degree at any of the Alamo Colleges. A six-hour academic requirement must be met before the CEU's can be transferred into college credit.

The Alamo Colleges District's grading system is available in the Academic Standards section of the academic catalog on the left hand navigation bar. A grade of NR (Not Recorded) is posted on your transcript when your instructor has not assigned a final grade. To change a grade of NR, you should follow up with the instructor or, reach out to dst-alamoCD@alamo.edu for further guidance.
