

2019 DISTINGUISHED GRADUATE

Jennifer Reyna

Public Administration

“Believe in yourself. You are braver than you think, more talented than you know, and capable of more than you imagine.”

- Roy T. Bennett

Jennifer Reyna is a native of Lubbock. She is married to Randy Reyna and has four children: Issiac, Gavin, Mia, and Nadia. Jennifer values the importance of education.

Jennifer was appointed City Secretary for the City of Alamo Heights in November 2008. She has over 18 years of experience in government work with the cities of Lubbock, San Antonio, Alamo Heights and Citrus Heights, CA.

She is a former President for the local Alamo Chapter Texas Municipal Clerk Association (TMCA), a member of the TMCA, trustee for TMCA (2013 - 2014) and continues to serve on local and state level committees.

Jennifer volunteers in different organizations and loves giving back to her community. She is a parishioner at St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church. She enjoys traveling, baking, watching soccer, and spending time with family.
