Documentary: The Inventor: Out for Blood in Silicon Valley. Tuesday 9 April, ASB 239, 9-11:30. Academy Award winner Alex Gibney's documentary investigates the rise and fall of Theranos, the one-time multibillion-dollar healthcare company founded by Elizabeth Holmes. In 2004, Elizabeth Holmes dropped out of Stanford and started the company.... In 2014, Theranos was valued at $9 billion....Just two years later, Theranos was cited as a "massive fraud" by the SEC, and its value was less than zero....With all the drama of a real-life heist film, the untitled documentary will examine how this could have happened and who is responsible, while exploring the psychology of deception. An HBO Production. 31 students from classes taught by: Alberto Vasquez, and Terri Murphy-Sanchez; Jemal Nelson; David Kisel; Jill Zimmerman; Dr. Manzo.
