Adena Loston Foster

SPC President Interviewed for Mission Park Cares Segment

Mr. Dick Tips of Mission Park Cares chats with Dr. Adena Loston about the history of St. Philip's College and how it has become an important institution of higher learning for underserved populations in San Antonio and its rise to national prominence as the nation's only federally-designated as both an HBCU and HSI. This segment is part of an episode that aired on Fox 29 on Aug. 7, 2022.

Mr. Dick Tips also spoke to Alamo Colleges Foundation board member, Phil Bakke, about his support for St. Philip's College and the Tourism, Hospitality and Culinary Arts building: <https://youtu.be/zdRGTiiddM8>. The segment aired on Fox 29 on August 14, 2022.

Student Success

SPC Nursing Grads Celebrate with Summing Pinning

St. Philip's College (SPC) Center of Excellence, Science in collaboration with San Antonio ISD hosted the Space Team Robotics program at Sam Houston High School for 26 children as part of the Nita Lowey 21st Century Learning Centers grant. The 21st CCLC Program supports community learning centers that provide academic enrichment opportunities during non-school hours.

Performance Excellence

SPC Nursing Grads Celebrate with Summing Pinning

St. Philip's College (SPC) awarded seven students with childcare assistance from the Applied Science and Health Sciences Divisions (Vocational Nursing, Respiratory Care, Diesel Program and Automated Industrial Process) from July to August 2022. Funding was paid under the Carl Perkins Grant. Access to affordable childcare supports retention and persistence by helping students who struggle to cover out of pocket expenses. The Carl D. Perkins Career and Technical Education Act of 2006 supports academic achievement of career and technical education students.
