FAMILY DAY

Message from our Vice President of Student Success

Greetings SPC Tigers,

We are thrilled to have you join our vibrant community of scholars, innovators, and future leaders. As you embark on this exciting journey, we want to extend a warm back-to-school welcome and offer our support to help you thrive during your time at our esteemed institution.

This semester marks the beginning of an incredible chapter in your educational and personal growth. It's a time of new beginnings, fresh perspectives, and boundless opportunities. Whether you are a first-year student or a returning learner, we are here to guide you every step of the way.

Connect with your fellow students from various backgrounds, cultures, and perspectives. Collaborate, share ideas, and engage in meaningful conversations that broaden your horizons and foster understanding.

Take advantage of the extracurricular activities, clubs, and organizations that align with your interests. These opportunities not only enhance your college experience but also help you develop leadership skills, build lifelong friendships, and create cherished memories.

Remember, you are not alone on this path. Reach out to your professors, advisors, and classmates whenever you need assistance or a listening ear. We are here to help you succeed. Welcome once again, Fall 2023 students! May this semester be filled with growth, discovery, and remarkable accomplishments.

Embrace the journey, make lifelong connections, and enjoy every moment of your time at St. Philip's College. Here's to a fantastic semester ahead!

As always, please reach out to me if I can be of service to you at wwells8@alamo.edu.

In service,
Wesley B. Wells
Vice President for Student Success St. Philip's College

Tiger Nation Family Day is designed to introduce students to college leadership, highlight college programs and services, inspire students, welcome families, and orient everyone to our beautiful campus.

New Semester Checklist

The start of a new semester can be overwhelming, below are some steps students can take to help them get started on the right foot!

New Students

- Attend Tiger Nation Family Day!
- Connect with the office of First Year Experience for guidance and resources
- Get familiar with the Tutoring Centers across both campuses
- Review AlamoEXPERIENCE for events, news, and student organizations
- Familiarize yourself on campus by requesting a tour
- Sign up for the Alamo Alert System to be notified of any college emergencies or weather-related delays/closures

Returning Students

- Reflect on previous semester and identify areas for improvement
- Set goals for the semester (academic, personal, and/or career goals)
- Visit Career Readiness & Experiential Learning Services to research internship and other experiential learning opportunities related to your career goals
- Develop a self-care and stress management plan for when the semester gets tough

Remember, being proactive and prepared will set the stage for a successful and enjoyable semester for both new and returning students.
