Student Success

SPC ECHS Summer Bridge Welcome

On June 8, the ECHS Summer Bridge Program welcomed the Class of 2027 to St. Philip's College with a half-day orientation on campus. Leadership from across the college gave remarks, encouraging this group of incoming freshmen to reach their education goals.

Performance Excellence

JET Grant Presentation

The St. Philip's College Dual College, Early College High School, and Pathways in Technology for Early College High School are recipients of the Jobs and Education for Texans Grant. This grant will enable these programs to purchase and upgrade their training tools and equipment in the automotive, manufacturing, and welding programs.

Principle-Centered Leadership

Dual Credit - Nurse Pinning Ceremony

Sixteen dual credit students recently participated in the Nurse Pinning Ceremony for the C.N.A. program. The following high schools were represented; South San High School, West Campus High School, Legacy Traditional School and, St. Philip's Early College High School.
