Student Success

Students Attend Good To Great and Future Search

SPC students Chrishall Armstrong, President of Eureka Science Club; Darius Martin, former ACD Board Student Trustee; Connie Pullen, President of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society; and Amira Johnson, former White House HBCU Initiative Scholar, attended the college's Good to Great Strategic Planning Retreat. They were able to represent student perspectives to faculty, staff, and administrators and learn about performance excellence, planning, and process improvement.

Performance Excellence

Students Inducted into Collegiate 100

SPC's Collegiate 100 Chapter, a college affiliate of the 100 Black Men of San Antonio (BMOSA), Inc., held inducted 32 students. Collegiate 100 is a Chartered Student Organization that supports the college mission to empower our diverse student population through educational achievement and career readiness. BMOSA members provide professional development and mentorship for the chapter and mentor students on community service projects and youth mentoring.

Principle-Centered Leadership

Public Service Institute Observes Child Abuse Prevention Month

The Public Service Institute and Department of Student Life hosted Judge Peter Sakai for a presentation in awareness of Child Abuse Prevention Month. Judge Sakai shared his journey followed by a discussion on child abuse and neglect. The judge is well known for his work with youth in foster care. 50 attended this event, including students, faculty, and employees.
