History of St. Philip's College

St. Philip's College was founded in 1898 by Bishop James Steptoe Johnston of St. Philip's Episcopal Church of the West Texas Diocese. The school, which opened on March 1, 1898, began as a sewing class for girls with fewer than 20 students in a house located in the area known today as the historic La Villita area in downtown San Antonio.

Artemisia Bowden, a teacher and daughter of a former slave, later assumed leadership of the school. Under the direction of Miss Bowden over the ensuing 52 years, St. Philip's underwent monumental transformation, evolving from parochial day school to industrial school to a fully accredited two-year college offering a diverse curriculum. Changes included a move in 1917 from the school's original site to a new location just east of downtown, and an affiliation with San Antonio College and the San Antonio Independent School District in 1942 that marked the end of the college's era as a private institution.

Change came again in 1945 when St. Philip's College and San Antonio College formed the San Antonio Union Junior College District under the direction of a newly formed district board of trustees. In 1982, the district changed its name to the Alamo Community College District.

The college grew again in 1987 when Southwest Campus, formerly part of East Kelly Air Force Base, was designated as an official campus of St. Philip's. The campus, which previously had operated as a district extension since 1975, continues to serve students as well as business and industry as a hub for technical training programs.

Celebrating its 122nd anniversary year, St. Philip's College is a multi-campus institution that is continuing to meet the needs of San Antonio's growing and diverse community. A Historically Black College and Hispanic Serving Institution with a semester enrollment of about 13,000, St. Philip's is among the oldest and most diverse community colleges in the nation and one of the fastest growing in Texas.

Mission

St. Philip's College, founded in 1898, is a comprehensive public community college whose mission is to empower our diverse student population through educational achievement and career readiness. As a Historically Black College and Hispanic Serving Institution, St. Philip's College is a vital facet of the community, responding to the needs of a population rich in ethnic, cultural and socio-economic diversity. St. Philip's College creates an environment fostering excellence in academic and technical achievement while expanding its commitment to opportunity and access.

Artemisia Bowden, Holy Woman

Artemisia Bowden, a teacher and administrator at St. Philip's College for more than a half-century, received recognition by the Episcopal Church as a Holy Woman.

The 78th General Convention of the Episcopal Church in Salt Lake City authorized adding Bowden's name to the liturgical calendar in "Holy Women, Holy Men: Celebrating the Saints." August 18 is her designated feast day.

Dr. Adena Williams Loston, president of St. Philip's College, said it was fitting the Episcopal Church recognized Bowden's service. "Miss Bowden came to San Antonio as a very young person, with no relatives here or network. She had to establish herself in a new community, but she had the church which brought her here," Loston said. "The only strong relationship she had was with the church."

A graduate of St. Augustine Normal School in Raleigh, North Carolina, Bowden, daughter of a former slave, taught for two years in North Carolina before becoming principal of St. Philip's. "Our highest ambition is to send from our institution true, God-fearing women, who are not ashamed of the truth and whose characters are spotless," Bowden wrote in a 1904 report on St. Philip's.

Loston said Bowden deserves the title "Savior of St. Philip's" because she found ways to keep the school open after the Episcopal Church withdrew its financial support. "To raise funds, she took a quartet of singing students around the country, she bartered chickens and eggs, she discontinued taking a salary and brought her relatives to teach at no cost," Loston said.

Bowden earned a bachelor's degree from St. Augustine College in 1935 and did graduate work at Columbia University and the New York School of Social Work. She received honorary degrees from Wiley and Tillotson Colleges. She retired in 1954.

Today, Bowden is remembered through the Bowden Eye Care & Health Institute, open through the University of the Incarnate Word, and Bowden Academy in San Antonio Independent School District. St. Philip's College has a Bowden Building as well as Artemisia's, the classroom-restaurant that is part of the Tourism, Hospitality and Culinary Arts Department.

Artemisia Bowden was named President Emeritus, St. Philip's College, by Alamo Colleges Board of Trustees on Sep. 15, 2015.

Dear Honor Student,

Congratulations!

Your outstanding achievement and placement on the St. Philip's College Honor's list or President's list is a proud accomplishment which reflects your commitment to learning. You have earned this prestigious title through your hard work, diligence, and dedication.

You are an inspiration to others. This is evidenced by your personal and academic values while balancing the rigorous challenges of school, work and family. Honors Convocation is a time to share your success with parents, spouses, children and other family members and acquaintances.

As educators, one of our goals is to foster in our students a sense to achieve academically, as well as to prepare for a successful career. I encourage you to continue your education and to strive for excellence in your academic and career goals.

Sincerely,

Message from the Interim Vice President

Congratulations on being an Honors recipient for your academic work at St. Philip's College!

Today, we honor you for your hard work, diligence, and dedication in pursuing excellence in your education. Your exceptional ability to balance coursework, co-curricular interests, family needs and employment obligations are reasons to celebrate. Each of you are inspirational.

The faculty, staff, and administration at St. Philip's College, as well as your family and friends, are proud of your accomplishments. Your continued academic success is as important to each of us in Tiger Nation as it is to you.

Saint Artemisia Bowden said, "Learn to do something and learn to do it well." By your earning the distinction that comes from being named a President's Honors student or an Honors student, you have learned to do something and to do it well.

May you continue on your path of striving for excellence in all your life goals.

Sincerely,
